DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN COLONISTS NATIONAL SOCIETY

Aug. 22-'47

Dear Lady; Will you be good enough to tel me, if you know, WHO wa the father of ~~WEST~~ West (ANTHONY) who came to Va. 1622 ? I have done much research to try to find this and cannot. The records state h was the cousin of of the De La Warrs.

Perhaps you can give me some references.

The WEST Register by Mrs. Stone of this city does not give it and talking to her, she frankly admits she does not know. She thinks England i is the only place to find it. The Oct. Board will be on the 17th- will you be here ?

Love and thanks- Sincerely, L.M. Sanford

Petition.

Nov. 21, 1677.

Petition of Henry West(2) a Planter of Virginia now in England in behalf of himself and brother to the King. William West was seduced to accept a Commission unde the late Rebel Bacon against the Indians who had inhumanly murdered the petitioners parents about thirty years since- both brothers surrendered themselves to Col. Bridger on promise of pardon but were tryed by a Council of War & William was sentenced to death & Henry to be transported to England & to give bond to his Maj. to leave Virginia- Prays for leave to return to his family to Virginia & to be discharged of his bond and for pardon for his brother William who made his escape out of prison & is ready to take the oath of obedience & give security for his future good behaviour as many other more notorious offenders have been admitted to do. Indorsed "Read in Council Nov. 21, 1677."

(Colonial Papers, 1 p.)

(Virginia Magazine of History and Biography. Vol. 23) page 26)

By order of a court-martial held Jan 24, 1676-7, Henry West was found guilty of treason and rebellion and banished from Virginia for seven years. By a similar Court on Jan. 24, 1676-7, William West was sentenced to death. These Wests lived in Isle of Wight County and as a family of the name lived there later it is probable that one or both of the brothers left descendants in Virginia.

Feb. 22, 1677-8.

Petition of Henry West, of the Isle of Wight County in Virginia now in London, to the King- For a pass for leave to return home to his poor family in Virginia by a ship ready to sail within a very few days, else he will lose his passage this year: also that his bond not to return may be cancelled and his estate discharged from seizure without the payment of fees. Indorsed "Read in Council Feb. 22, 1677-8." Colonial Papers 1. p.)

Feb. 1677-8

Report of Thos. Lord Culpeper to the King on Petition of Henry West of Virginia Planter referred to him as Governor of that Colony by an Order in Council. That upon the best information he can obtain from Col. Moryson and others, inasmuch as the petitioner came voluntarily in to submit himself in the time of the late Rebellion He conceives him fit object for his Maj. compassion & pardon & to have liberty to return home to his Wife and Children in Virginia.

Indorsed "Read 22 of Feb'y 1677"-8.

Mr Shirley observes that "the Wests are remarkable, not so much for the antiquity of the family, as for the early period at which they attained the honor of peerage. Sir Thomas West, the first recorded ancestor, died in the seventeenth year of the reign of Edward II, having married the heiress of Cantilupe and thus become connected with Sussex. Few families of the time had broader lands." The name West is the most popular one of all the compass points which have also become name designations. Its popularity is easily shown in the many records of early England, for the name has a good representation in all of them, from all sides of England.

1649 - Patent to Randall Herle for 6000 a "upon great Newwattock River from Chingandee Creeke mouth unto Arakoko Creeke". The transportation of twelve persons were listed among whom were, Anthony West, his wife Ann, his son John and a daughter Katherine.

At the time of the Virginia muster taken Jan 23, 1624/5 - an Anthony West, who came over in the Tames in 1622, was then living on the Treasurer's Land.

There is proof in colonial records that he ^{then} returned to England (the same Anthony), whether he is the same one who came to the shore with his family under the Herle patent is unknown.

Anthony West died in 1652 and the widow Ann married Capt Stephen Charlton whom she survived.

The son John West married Matilde, daughter of Col. Edmund and Mary Scarborough.

He was one of the leading men of Accomack County during his life and held about every position or title that could be given him.

At Tappahannock, Essex Co.,

you will find a John Gregory of old Rappahannock made a deed April 16, 1666, and also made a will dated April 21, 1678, left all his estate to John Gregory, Jr. (I guess his son). From old Rappahannock Co. records John Gregory - wife Elizabeth - Vestryman of Sittingbourne Parish 1665, had two sons - John & Richard. The will of Richard Gregory of Essex was dated February 17, 1700, and speaks of land in King & Queen Co. There seems scarcely a doubt but these Gregories were descended from the Emigrant, "Richard Gregory", who came in 1621 on the ship Temperance with Lieutenant Flint, but so far I have never found whom he married. Roger Gregory first married Mary Cole Claiborne.

Their Son

THOMAS JOHN GREGORY married Barbara Anne Fitzhugh in 1778. He fought in the Revolutionary War under Capt. Richard Yancey of Culpeper at the siege of Yorktown (Nugent - 1 Vol - 1935) The name of the Gregory home in King William was Mount Pleasant, built in 1720 on the Mataponi River (in what was then New Kent Co.) Thomas John Gregory, who married Barbara Anne Fitzhugh in 1778, was the son of Roger Gregory. Barbara Anne Fitzhugh was a daughter of Anne Barbara McCarthy and John Fitzhugh of Westmoreland Co., son of William Fitzhugh, the emigrant who married little Sara Tucker in 1674, daughter of John Tucker of Tucker Hill. William Fitzhugh's home was called "Bedford", in Westmoreland on the Potomac and Chotank Creek. Their son William built "Marmion". Barbara Anne McCarthy was a daughter of Capt. Daniel McCarthy of Westmoreland County, who is buried at Yeocomico Church of Popes Creek and "Longwood" - the name of the McCarthy family estate. The first wife of Capt. (Note by Editor: The numbers betw. the given name of the West fam. & the surname, such as, John (6) West, would mean that John (6) West was the 6th generation of the West line in America; of course the numbers in parenthesis preceding the name would mean that the children were being numbered, but not always in the order of birth).—Editor.
